

Bible Hero

Sadducee
Saul

???What's that???
can you label our hero?

Paul was probably a Sadducee, a Jewish religious teacher, Jesus didn't like the religious teachers very much, if you look at Matthew 23:3 you will find how he describes the Pharisee's and Sadducee's...

Saul believed he knew a lot about God, he had spent many years studying and listening to wise teachers. BUT Saul had not understood Jesus' message, he wanted to put the Christians in prison because he thought they were so wrong in their beliefs.

Why do you think that Jesus chose Saul to tell people about him?

What do you think the people who sent Saul to arrest the Christians in Damascus thought when they found out he had joined them and was now preaching the good news about Jesus?

Is blindness a ever gift?

When we close our eyes we hear better, smell better, and sometimes think better (as long as we don't fall asleep!) Blindness was a gift because it showed Saul a different way of looking at God.

Why do you think Jesus changed Saul's name to PAUL?

Take a candle and light it. Think about how Jesus said he was "the Light of the World", Pray to see the world how God wants us to see it. If possible light a candle as you pray.

Can you draw 3 things that give light below?
