

Bible Heroes

Servant David

Using your talents

David can sometimes be a hard hero to study because he seems to be good at everything, but David's strongest talent was playing music. Just like David, everyone can choose to walk with God, what talent(s) do you have that God could use? Draw or write in the box below.

My Talent is....

How could God use this talent?

David was busy working for his father, looking after the sheep, why do you think he agreed to go and play music for Saul? Circle the right answers

He was obeying
his king's request

He thought he may be able to help

He wanted to show the king how well he played

He couldn't say no
to the messenger

He wanted
Glory

It was a privilege
for him to serve

Saul made David an Armour Bearer. Colour the pieces of Armour David may have carried.

How may David have felt taking this new job?

David became a servant to the king, even though one day he would be king. What are 5 things you can do this week to serve?

Stuck? Try these 5 suggestions: think of something...

1. to make someone smile
2. to do a job someone else usually does
3. to show kindness
4. to be generous
5. to use your talent

(take this sheet home as a reminder and colour in each one as you do it)

