

ourney to the money in the special building. The temple should be a place for excited to see Jesus but he was angry to see the people playing with clean out and tidy up the building to keep it special. meeting with God, not a place to have a market and get rich selling things. Jesus got so angry turned over the tables. Jesus wanted to Jesus went to his father house, God's house, the temple. People were

Journey to the cr

get some more oil and missed the party. Jesus doesn't want us to night the oil burned down and down. The 5 silly girls had to leave to were wise, they had brought extra oil, but 5 were silly didn't. They all miss the party. special one. It's about 10 girls had oil lamps to take to a party. 5 girls Jesus was telling his disciples stories and today we remember one

Journey to the something so precious. smiling. Jesus knew that she had shown him great love by giving his smell the beautiful aroma. The disciples were shocked but Jesus was poured all the perfume over his head. Everyone in the room could with a beautiful jar of perfume. She walked over to Jesus and Jesus and his friends were sitting in a house when a lady came in rney to the c

when they broke the bread. slaves. Everybody sat down for the special meal of roast meat and made in a rush, super quick. Jesus did something new this year, he remembered God saving his people, when they had escaped being bok this bread and broke it, he told his friends to remember him flat bread. Bread takes a long time to make but this bread was It was special day for Jesus and his friends, it was the day they ourney to the c

arranged for Jesus to die. Jesus died on a wooden cross, lots of men, they told lies, they paid the crowd to shout nasty things, they away. Today we remember the Friday they took him to important even death could not beat him. end of Jesus's story. On Sunday morning Jesus would come back churches have crosses, have you seen one? But death was not the Some of the people who didn't like Jesus found him and took him

Print and hang them up either as a ladder or string to show each day passing.

There are alternative activities for older children, it is strongly advised you read both sets and choose which you would prefer each day. The daily activity can take as little as 5 minutes or you can use it as a springboard for more activities with the same item theme