The Rich fool

Our dreams of greatness

What things do you dream for yourself?

To hold power

To be wise

To be independent

To be popular

To be famous

To be kind

To be clever

To be rich

To have your voice heard

To be beautiful

Which if these things do you think is the most important?

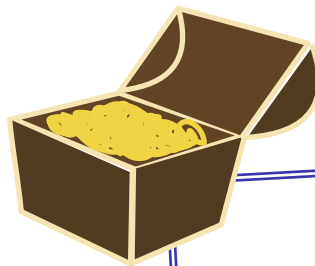

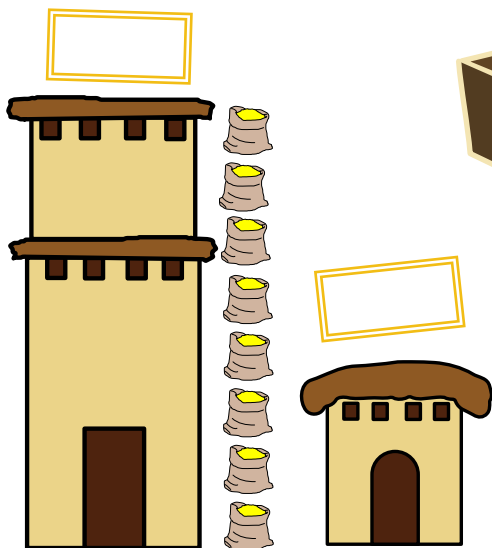

What did the man want in the parable?

In the story the rich fool has a huge harvest and builds bigger barns to store all his extra food.

Do you think his choice was a bad one? Yes or No or Not sure

What else could the rich farmer have done with all his extra food?

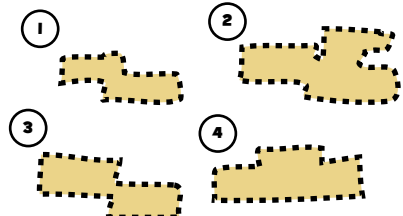

Guess how many bags of grain the two different barns hold.

What do you think Heavenly treasure looks like?

What is your greatest treasure?

Oh dear, the barn is crumbling, which 3 pieces can you use to fix it?

If you needed one bag of grain every month how long would it last?
