

You'll need:

Scissors.

Instructions

Cut out both rectangles.

Fold along the centre of the doors. (Mountain fold)

Fold along dotted lines so you can open the doors. (Valley fold)

Cornelius believed he would never belong in God's people

Peter showed him that Jesus welcomed him into the faith

The main illustration shows a door with two windows. The left window is set against a light blue background and shows a man in a red tunic and a white head covering, representing Cornelius. The right window is set against a light green background and shows a man in a white tunic and a white head covering, representing Peter. The door itself is white with a handle and a keyhole. The text on the left and right sides of the door is written in a bold, sans-serif font.