Sessions review

A Sit-down chat

This review is designed for leaders to sit together and discuss. It's a good tool for assessing when the sessions feel stale or you are facing disagreements about how the session should work. While it asks about a specific session, you can use it for sessions in general too.

Start with Prayer

We begin by bringing our focus back to you, Lord. We recognise that our activities, our space, our inspiration and ideas, our energy even, comes from your provision. As we think about how we share your kingdom with the children in our care, we pray that you will open our hearts to your prompting, Be with us in this time we pray. Amen.

Don't forget this truth...
Our focus is to share the Gospel in words, actions and service.
Everything else is extra!

3 BIG Topics

Practical

- Were all the children safe during our time together?
- Did we deal with any situations that arose professionally?
- Did we have sufficient leaders?
- Did we have sufficient resources per child?
- Was the environment suitable for our activities?
- How could we improve our space?

Social

- Were the children welcomed, spoken to individually and received with love?
- Were the parents happy to leave their children in our care?
- Did the group interact well together?
- Did we build friendships and community?
- Are we grouping appropriately, according to age and/or ability?
- Are there any who may be more comfortable in a different setting?

Spiritual

- How was God reflected in the actions of this session?
- Was the biblical message well communicated?
- Did we take time to pray and/or worship together?
- Did the children have a chance to question, wonder and respond?
- Was there a practical way the children can relate this to their lives?
- Do we think our children are growing their faith?

We remember better when we write things down
